The Polk State College District Board of Trustees delegates authority to the President to act as its agent in determining the appropriateness of any advertisement, display, sign, or distribution of promotional materials on the campus or within College publications. The Board expects these materials and/or their design and place of presentation to be consistent with the best interests of the entire College community and the mission, vision, and values of the College. Advertisements on the campus or within College publications do not constitute official endorsement of the products or services involved. Products that have been determined to be harmful or possibly injurious to health (e.g., tobacco or alcohol) cannot be advertised or promoted on the campus or within College publications.
